To the Voters of Alexandria County:

office, (there being five or six named therefor.)

As a matter of course, I bowed to the action of the convention. A new convention was called of which I had no notification, to which I was fore, being a party to the second convention, I feel myself relieved from the action of the first, and, being importuned by many of my political responsible position of Clerk of the County Court, then embracing the whole County, upon the duties of which, I may say, I entered with many misgivings as to the propriety of their choice. Maving, however, finally consented to serve them, there appearing, at that time, to be no other person who they deemed so compeously applied myself to the duties of the office on the 16th of December, 1861, and the County Court was then reorganized under what was known as the "Restored Government of Virginia," Wheeling, Virginia, being then the seat of government of the State. I served the unexpired term for which I was elected, and was again elected in 1864 for the full term of six years, as Clerk of the County and Circuit Courts, to which last named office I had, in the meantime the Judge thereof appointed me Clerk of the ast named Court, and afterwards I received the appointment of Clerk of the County Court. The arduous duties of the offices during the years of 1863, '4 and '5, having made alarming inroads upon my health, my medical advisers insisted upon my resignation of the office. Feeling, however, that I had the confidence of the people, and looking to the possibility of the in terest of the community being jeopardized by my resignation at that time, I hit upon the expedient of removing my residence to the country where I hope, by manual exercise, to counteract the effect upon my system from the confinement to the office. I accordingly continued in office, and, through a kind Providence, I have not beeen disappointed in the result of

In thus announcing mysolf as an Independent candidate, I indulge in no spirit of antagonism to Republican principles, for in my earnest de sire that its true principles may prevail, I bow as second to none, but I do feel that it is in cumbent on the party and on myself as a mem ber thereof to see to it that persons are selected by us for the everal public offices as to whose

ADVERTISING .- Mr. Stewart, the New York ADVERTISING.—Mr. Stewart, the New York merchant, is by odds the largest advertiser in the dry goods trade in New York; and we are not certain that his annual expenses for this publicans of the County, in which convention I purpose do not equal the bills paid for the same did not receive the nomination for said office, service by all of his competitors added together.

This may, and doubtless will, seem strange to those who have not loooked into the matter, but it is nevertheless the exact truth ; and what's lesson does the fact teach to merchants entitled as a member of the Republican party, and others who are struggling to establish a business or to retain one already established ! If Mr. Stewart, with his immense resources, his unequalled prestige, and his widely estab lished trade, finds it necessary or profitable to to liberally employ printer's ink to enable him | ultimate decision of an intelligent people for a to hold his own in these days, how much more essential and important that the same potent agency should be employed by those who are not possessed of his other varied facilities for not possessed of his other varied facilities for consider me egotistical in allusions to myself. bringing customers to their doors? We leave our merchants and other business men to supply the answer. They will at least find the questions worthy their attention and thoughttul consideration. - Washington Star.

GLASS SPECTACLES, superior to any other in use - constructed in accordance with the science and philosophy of nature, in the peculiar form of CONCAVE CONVEX ELIPSIS, admirably adapted to the organs of Sight, and perfectly natural to the eye, affording altogether the best artificial help to the human vision ever invented. Used only by

MORRIS BERNHARDT, SPECTACLE AND OPTICAL MANUFACTURES. The advantages of these Spectacles over all others are:

1. THEY CAN BE WORN WITH PERFECT EASE for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, by candle or any other artificial light, comfort to the spectacle wearer hitherto unknown.

2. HOW TO SELECT GLASSES It requires professional guidance even when a good article is offered. Doctor Bernhardt not only has the best Glasses that can be found in the market, but carefully examines the eyes, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of them. TESTIMONY OF RECOMMENDATIONS

From Medical gentlemen, Professors of the is Va. and the Union. Alexandria, Va., Sept. 16, 1870. It affords much pleasure to state that after a careful examination of the glasses used by Prof. Bernhardt and his peculiar arrangements for adapting them to the improvement of the varied defects and diseases of the human eve, we fee! assured that he is a most skillful and accomplished Optician, and we very cordially commend him to the confidence of the community M. M. LEWIS, M. D.

ROBT. R. S HOUGH, M. D., Pastor M. E. Church South. Alexandria, September 17, 1870. Judging from the interview which I have had with Professor M. Bernhardt, I believe him to be a skillful Optician, and from the many certificates which he has from the highest men of the South, that he is an experienced and reliable Oculist. F.J. MURPHY, M. 1: I have examined the Brazillian Pebble and Australian Crystal Glasses of Dr. M. Bernhardt, and regard them of superior quality and surpassing any that ever came under my ob-servation. Testimonials from the most prominent citizens of the country prove that numbers have been greatly benefitted by the Doctor. It take pleasure in recommending him to any who may need his services. T. H. HAYNES, Pastor of the M. E. Church. Alexandria, Va., Sept. 19, 1870. From Ex-Governor Shorter, of Alabama. Eufaula Ala, April 7, 1870.

Dr. M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician: My Dear Sir: I beg to express to you the deep sense of obligation I feel for the professional kindness extended to me, by which, with eye sight impaired by years of application and study, I am enabled to write this note with the clearness of vision which I enjoyed in the days of my youth. May your honorable and useful life long be spared, that humanity may enjoy the scientific skill of one so eminently qualified in mind and heart to do good to his fellowmen.

With grateful acknowledgments, permit me to subscribe myself. Your obedient servant and friend. GOV. JNO. GILL SHORTER.

State of South Carolina, Executive Dept. Columbia, June 19, 1867. Sir: I have made full and satisfactory test of the Spectacles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facilities with which you fitted the glass to my eye furnished me conclusive evidence of your thorough experience as an Oculist. Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage and gratitude of the public.

I have the honor to be very respectfully yours, JAMES L. ORR, yours, Governor of South Carolina. Portsmouth, Va., Dec. 1, 1865. Prof. Bernhardt:-I owe you a debt of gratitude for the benefit you have rendered me. For many years I have been accustomed to use glasses when reading or writing, and always with pain, more or less, to my eyes. You have relieved me from all inconvenience. I can now read and write for all hours without any pain, and can see objects distant and near through the same glasses with clearness and distinctness that I have not experienced since my youth. I am gratefully yours, JOSEPH H. PLUNKETT, Pastor of St. Paul's.

Testimonials similar to the above may be seen at M. Bernhardt's office from the mest reliable and well known gentlemen of the United States, mong whom are: Horatio Seymour ex-Governor of New York. R. E. Fenton, ex-Governor of New York. A. G. Curtin, ex-Governor of Pennsylvania.
